OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

DECS Order No. 21, s. 1958

No. 100-100-100

REGULATION ON SIMPLE AND INEXPENSIVE GRADUATION CEREMONIES

- To: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
School Superintendents
Presidents, State Colleges and Universities
Heads of Private Schools, Colleges and Universities
Deans of Schools Superintendents Administrators

1. In line with the policy of simple and substantial activities, all school heads are advised to hold simple, inexpensive but meaningful graduation ceremonies. Attention of school officials is called to observe the following:

a. No excessive contributions should be charged from graduating students or their parents for supposed expenses for moderate stage decorations, ribbons, medals and other miscellaneous but non-essential items.

b. No expensive special attire should be required from graduates. Balls should be held in five-star hotels or exclusive restaurants compelling graduating students to participate and contribute additional and excessive amounts.

2. Immediate dissemination of this Order is urgently requested.

RICARDO T. GLORIA
Secretary
