IMPLEMENTING GUIDELINES FOR THE PECS-SPECIAL PROGRAM
FOR THE EMPLOYMENT OF STUDENTS FOR SUMMER OF 1987

To: Undersecretaries
Assistant Secretaries
Bureau Directors
Regional Directors

In line with the mandate of Executive Order No. 139 dated November 28, 1984, pursuant to Republic Act No. 7523 otherwise known as An Act To Help Poor But Deserving Students Pursue their Education by Encouraging their Employment during Spring and Christmas Vacations and its Implementing Guidelines and in consonance with the PECS-Suburban-ECV Programs, the Department of Education, Culture and Sports will implement for the fourth time the PECS Special Program for the Employment of Students (PECS-SPECS) at the PECS Central Office and PECS Regional Offices.

The objectives of the program are as follows:

- a. Develop the intellectual capacities of children of poor families and harness their potentials for the country's development;
- b. Instill among the youth a sense of awareness of the vision, policies and programs of the administration;
- c. Provide the youth with alternatives as instilled in them the values of discipline, hardwork, community service, teamwork, volunteerism and the bayanihan spirit through productive and constructive undertakings; and
- d. Provide training and financial assistance to the youth to support their educational and career development.

3. Qualified to avail of the program are in-school youth and out-of-school youth who are 15 to 25 years old, whose parents' combined net income is not more than thirty-six thousand pesos (P36,000.00), and who have garnered at least an average passing grade during the last school year term preceding the summer vacation.

Each regional office shall employ five (5) SRSR patients for their respective jurisdiction based on the criteria set forth in this order.

1. Only the name of the SRSR patient shall appear on the appointment card. The name shall be printed in the upper left corner of the appointment card and the signature shall appear in the lower right corner.

2. Each patient shall be assigned to a specific office of the respective jurisdiction. The assignment shall be made by the respective office manager and the patient shall be notified of the assignment in writing.

3. The supporting documents to the SRSR-K-1000 form shall be submitted to the respective office manager for review and approval.

4. All needs of concerned offices shall be met for the creation of a screening committee. The committee shall be composed of representatives from the respective offices and shall be responsible for the selection and screening of applicants based on the criteria set forth in this order and based on the criteria needed by their respective offices.

5. A minimum of three and a maximum of five slots shall be allotted to each county, central and regional office. The slots shall be allocated based on the needs of the respective offices and shall be subject to change without notice.

6. Employment period shall range from May 1 and end on May 31, 1987.

7. For the two general offices, the following guidelines shall be observed:

8. Successful applicants will be paid according to existing minimum pay rate of which box will come from the Bureau of the employing agency. The other box shall be paid by the Department of Labor and Employment (DOL) in the form of Pension/Voluntary Retirement Insurance and other field benefits and shall be coordinated with their counterparts. The program shall be implemented for the effective implementation of the program.

9. All applicants must bring with them an original copy of certified true copy of their birth/baptismal certificate, parental affidavit or certified true copy of income tax return and original of passport/report card of the last school year preceding summer 1987 term.
