These tests cover five (5) basic subjects in the school curriculum in the elementary and the secondary levels, namely: Communication Arts (English), Mathematics, Science, Araling Panlipunan and Sining ng Komunikasyon (Filipino). The tests are based on the learning competencies prescribed in the elementary and the secondary school curricula.

- 2.4 those who studied under an educational system that is different to that of the Philippines, whether local or foreign.

3. How does one apply for the test?

Anybody who is interested shall:

- 3.3 Pay a fee of fifty pesos (P50.00) per grade/year level.

The test is administered whenever necessary, but preferably during the summer months of April and May. The date is arranged between the prospective examinee and NETRC.

5. When is the test result released?

The test result is released at least one week after the test is administered by the NETRC. The Office of the Regional Director is likewise furnished a copy.
