

SONA to address high prices – Palace

By MARVIN SY

Malacañang expressed appreciation for the cooperation offered by the Senate to address the challenges posed by high food and oil prices but emphasized that President Arroyo will bare her own plans to face these problems in her State of the Nation Address (SONA) to-

Deputy presidential spokesman Anthony Golez, in an interview over dzRB, said the government needs all the help it can get right now, particularly from the legislature, to address the rising prices of rice and oil.

"In these times of crisis, which is being felt

MORROW

Turn to Page 7

National Library of the Philippines

NLP00NPPS0223630i00101.tif