

GMA leaving for Davos

By MARVIN SY

President Arroyo will leave for Davos, Switzerland on Friday to attend the elite five-day World Economic Forum, deputy presidential spokesperson Lorelei Fajardo announced yesterday.

Fajardo said the President is one of the speakers at the forum's plenary that will discuss the rebooting of the global economy.

World leaders and "key players of the world economy" will gather at the Swiss winter resort of Davos this week to tackle and find solutions to the global economic crisis.
